TRIESTE is 110 km southeast of Aviano and it is the largest port on the Adriatic Sea. The city was first fortified in ancient times, then endured turbulent centuries of the barbaric invasions. Trieste was constantly contested by Venice and Austria until it became independent in 1918 when it was liberated by Italian troops.

CONCENTRATION Camp in San Sabba

The edifice was built in 1913 and first used as a rice-husking facility (hence the name "Risiera"). During World War II Nazi occupation forces in Trieste used the building to transport, detain and exterminate prisoners. Many occupants of Risiera di San Sabba were transported to the Nazi concentration camp at Auschwitz in Poland. Historians estimate that over 3,000 people were killed at the camp and thousands more imprisoned and transported elsewhere.
