VENICE is a city of magic any time, but nothing compares to it during the fabulous celebration known as Carnival! Parades, masks, elegant costumes, a unique city with waterways for streets, a history rich with past intrigues, power and pageantry. A city steeped in tradition, such as lace making, glassblowing, prosecco, seafood, risotto, unique architecture, casinos, water taxis, pigeons, music, art and of course, the dashing gondoliers in their sleek black gondolas.

Venice is, indeed, MAGIC!

Venice Carnival is an ancient celebration starting 40 days before Easter, the last fling before Ash Wednesday. During Carnival, the streets are alive with people in costumes, music drifts in from the street musicians, magicians entertain on street corners, bands parade down the streets, jugglers, elegantly masked citizens of the world are everywhere. St. Marks Square fills with life-vendors, dancers, singers, and all manners of artisans are present.
