NEW YEAR'S Traditions

As we lead the way into 2023, many countries around the world search for ways to bring more luck into their lives through their traditions. With some of these traditions, the symbolism can mean a variety of things whether it's bringing more luck into your life, being more prosperous financially or bringing your loved ones closer together for the year. Check out some of these traditions and try it out for yourselves as well!

ITALIAN TRADITIONS

Searching for love in the New Year? In Italy it's a common tradition to make sure you've got red underwear on, not only does it guarantee good luck but brings love & romance into the New Year!

"Felice Anno Nuovo!"

SPANISH TRADITIONS

One of the most popular traditions in Spanish or Hispanic households is consuming twelve grapes by midnight. It's seen as bad luck if you are not able to eat them all but if you gobble up all twelve, it will represent twelve months of good luck coming your way!

"¡Feliz Año Nuevo!"

JAPANESE TRADITIONS

In Japanese culture, many households begin the year with soba noodles! The hot broth meal is shared amongst family and friends and is said to bring good health and prosperity for the New Year.

"Shin'nen'omedetō!"

GREEK TRADITIONS

In Greece, many celebrate "Podariko" which is translated to "good foot". The tradition starts with hanging pomegranates in the house. Once it's midnight, they will leave their houses and select one lucky person to re-enter the home with their right foot first. The second family member will then take the pomegranate with their right hand and smash it against the front door, the more juice splattered against the door the more luck you will receive for the year!

"Kalí Chroniá!"

MOST CREATIVE WYVERN! WYVERN OF THE MONTH

FOR JANUARY'S WYVERN OF THE MONTH

We want you to nominate the most creative Wyvern you know! This Wyvern shares their creative ideas with their community and inspires many with their artistic ability.

Email us at 31fss.marketing@gmail.com to nominate a Wyvern, including a photo and a short description pertaining to the monthly prompt. The Wyvern of the Month will be featured in our monthly Grapevine magazine. Submissions are due January 15th by 4PM.

SPONSOR OF THE MONTH

SSgt Christian Walker, 555 FGS

Thanks to SSgt Christian Walker, one of our newest Wyverns had an absolutely outstanding experience coming to and getting adjusted in Aviano. As soon as he was assigned to his new teammate, SSgt Walker reached out to ensure he had all the information and resources he could need. He was easy to reach and always available for questions. Once the member arrived, they noted how appreciative they were that SSgt Walker not only helped them with in-processing, but explained how everything worked here without making them feel so new. All in all, SSgt Walker provided a "perfect" sponsorship experience!

Thank you for your commitment to our community!

Coach Spotlight:

Cheerleading: Philip Thompson & Katherine Garcia

Coach Thompson and Coach Garcia went above and beyond at the very start of the season with our AYP cheerleaders. Not only did they choreograph a performance for their squad to learn and perform at a base event in less than 4 days, they taught the other squad the dance so everyone had an opportunity to participate! This was a first experience for our AYP cheerleaders. And it was an unforgettable experience. Thank you Philip and Katherine!

Flag football: Coach Adrianna Williamson and Ronald Williamson

Adrianna and Ronald have been volunteering with AYP Sports since Soccer 2021. Their love and commitment in coaching AYP youth shines through their interactions with their teams and their teams' parents. Every single season, without fail, multiple families request to be on "The Williamsons'" team. We could not ask for better mentors in our coaches! Thank you Adrianna and Ronald!

Basketball, Cheer and Start smart are officially closed for registration.
The waitlist for winter sports can be found under Youth Programs in CYPBMS.
